Yves Punie (@yves998)

Yves Punie is senior scientist at the Euro (JRC IPTS) leading its research and policy activities on ICT for Learning and Skills. The research area started in 2005 with the aim to provide evidence-based policy support to the European Commission on harnessing the potential of digital technologies to innovate education and training practices, improve access to lifelong learning and to deal with the rise of new (digital) skills and competences needed for employment, personal development and social inclusion. More than 20 major studies have been undertaken on these issues with more than 80 different publications. All studies are aimed at supporting European policies on the modernisation and innovation of E& T (DG EAC) and development of key competences (DG EMPL). Before joining the IPTS in 2001, he was interim Assistant Professor at the Free University of Brussels (VUB). He holds a Ph.D. in Social Sciences.
